FACT SHEET

Uruzgan Province

OVERVIEW

USAID estimated support for Uruzgan from January 2002 - December 2010: $58.5 million

Estimated population: 312,000 (Government of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan Central Statistics Office: Estimated Population of Afghanistan 2008-2009)

Capital: Tirin Kot

Note: Dutch-led PRT

The mountainous region of Uruzgan is situated in southern Afghanistan. In March 2004, Daykundi Province was carved out of an area in the north, leaving Uruzgan with a majority Pashtun population. Although Uruzgan has some mineral resources, including coal and fluoride, agriculture is the primary source of livelihood. Uruzgan's farmers cultivate grains, apricots, and almonds and continue to benefit from a plethora of irrigation and dam construction activities designed to address drought and flooding problems.

AGRICULTURE

Goal: Increase agricultural sector jobs and income through a) increased agricultural productivity by increasing farmer access to inputs and effective extension services; b) invigorated agribusiness by increasing linkages between farmers, markets, credit, and trade corridors; and c) rehabilitated watersheds and improved irrigation infrastructure. Also, increase Afghans' confidence in their government by increased Ministry of Agriculture, Irrigation, and Livestock's (MAIL) capacity to deliver services and promote the private sector and farmer associations through direct budget and technical assistance.

Summary: USAID focuses on preparing farmers to participate in a modern agricultural economy through improved irrigation, agricultural opportunities, veterinary services, and training.

Current Activities:

- Establish a farm service center
- Provide regular technical assistance to farmers to enhance their capacity for orchard management

Accomplishments:

- Established four self-sustaining veterinary field units and provided training for staff in disease diagnosis and artificial insemination
- Provided more than 76,000 vaccinations and 83,500 medications to livestock
- Visited seven villages in Tirin Kot District, and established nurseries of almonds and apricots
- Trained 30 farmers in the use of insecticides, herbicides, fungicides, and ordenticides, and apricot and almond post-harvest practices and technologies
- To increase agricultural capacity, provided training to farmers in crop production and marketing, and developed experimental agriculture plots in four districts
